

Hamburger Bar:

Toggles the left column on and off (toggle by clicking on the hamburger icon (the three horizontal bars))

Enables you to maximise map size by removing the left column

You will normally want the left column visible, though, as it gives access to all the additional layers of data available in Parish Online

The left-column is also used to display associated data upon clicking on a feature